FALL TERM DISTRICT COURT OPENS

Grand Jury Impaneled and Start Working—Jury for Week to Be Excused—Divorce Cases.

The fall term of the district court in Brazos county was opened this morning with Judge J. C. Scott on the bench. The panel for the grand jury was present and the following men were selected: J. P. Gilpin, foreman; Fletcher Pool, George Hensarling, W. E. Gandy, W. R. Goen, R. L. Buchanan, J. J. Riley, J. L. Sample, H. P. Dancy, Tom A. Adams, J. D. Martin and Leonard McDonald. A. J. Searcy was appointed door bailiff and the riding bailiffs are as follows: C. L. Baker, Henry Koontz, Claude Moore, J. J. Hicks, J. L. Hensarling, P. H. Arrington, Jim Read and Powell Harvey, colored, for the Brazos Bottom.

Immediately after the grand jury was impaneled they went to their room, accompanied by District Attorney W. C. Davis and County Attorney Lamar Bethea and started their work. By night a large number of subpoenas will be ready and they expect to start their quizzing tomorrow morning.

The court spent the better part of the morning working on the docket, settling cases for the term, and after same was finished the court started the hearing of divorce cases. There will be nothing come to trial this week except divorce cases. The jury for the week will appear tomorrow, but will be excused as soon as court is opened.

The criminal docket will be taken up the third week of the term, which will be September 15th.

NOTICE, K. OF P.

BIBLE CLASS TEACHER RESUMES HIS DUTIES.

Prof. R. O. Allen of the Allen Academy, after a vacation lasting three months from his duties as leader of the Wesley Bible class at the First Methodist church, returned yesterday morning to the class room and resumed his duties. Prof. Allen appeared in the best of spirits and was full of vim and vigor. He said that he had heard some very fine reports from the class during his absence and was delighted at same. A good representation of the class was present yesterday to welcome Prof. Allen back and his address to the class was very much enjoyed.

MISS PETERS HERE.

Miss Etta Peters, who has been spending the past few weeks on the beach, visiting friends and enjoying the surf, spent today in this city en route to New Baden and Franklin, where she will visit homefolks before returning here the latter part of September. Miss Peters spent several days this summer in San Antonio in the fashion shops reviewing her work.

THANKS

We desire to extend our thanks to those who have co-operated with us in establishing quick service for our market. We appreciate the fact that there are many people in Bryan who appreciate the kind of service we are trying to give. Yet there are some who neglect to order early, thereby making the delivery of the order uncertain, as to time.

We propose to give the very best service to our customers, and to those who have not joined the "Buy Early" movement, we desire to further solicit your co-operation and insist that you plan your meals for the day early and place your order for your meats with us just as soon as possible.

We can only give our service to those who avail themselves of it.

To get the choicest meats of all kinds, fresh and nice, place your order by 8 o'clock by phone,
